10.2.4	New Zealand Members	8 votes
10.2.5	South Australian Members	7 votes
10.2.6	Western Australian Members	8 votes
10.2.7	Tasmanian Members	3 votes
10.2.8	Northern Territory Members	1 vote

10.3 The Members by way of resolution at every 2nd Annual General Meeting commencing at the Annual General Meeting for the year 2011 may determine to alter Membership voting entitlements based upon a formula to be set by the Board that will reflect changes in industry participation in the greyhound racing industry between the States and Territories based upon but not limited to the following determinants;

- (a) Greyhounds Named (GA)
- (b) Number of Starters
- (c) Total Greyhound Wagering Turnover

Members' raw voting entitlement percentages are to be considered based on a weighted average of Greyhounds Named, Number of Starters and Total Greyhound Wagering Turnover on a 30:50:20 basis for the prior two years.

Members whose raw voting entitlements are under 10% shall be rounded up to the nearest whole percent, whilst those above 10% shall be rounded to the nearest whole percent. Should the total votes be above 100%, one percent will be taken from the highest voting percentage and then the second highest percentage, alternating until such time as a total of 100% is obtained. Every one percent of voting entitlement equates to one vote.

10.4 For the avoidance of doubt, where there is more than one organization in a State or Territory capable of and making claim to membership, that organization which is judged by the Board, at its sole discretion to exercise the greater statutory regulatory function will be entitled to membership.

10.5 Additional categories of members and their voting rights may be created from time to time by the Board.

12. The Chair

- 12.1 The Chair shall be appointed by the Board and shall hold office by way of a two year renewable contract at the discretion of the Board
- 12.2 The Chair shall be a non voting Chair save for an equality of votes when the Chair may elect to throw a casting vote. In the event that the Chair is unavailable to chair a meeting and a Board Member assumes the Chair, the Board Member does not have a right to throw a casting vote
- 12.3 The Chair must provide independent, impartial chairing of Members' and Directors' Meetings, perform duties delegated to him or her by the Board and perform all such other duties and functions as are required by this Constitution

13. The Board

13.1 Membership of the Board

- 13.1.1 The Company is managed by a Board, consisting of the Directors and the Chairman.
 - 13.1.2 The Company in general meeting may appoint new Directors who must be at the time of their appointment:
 - (a) the chairman of a Member; or
 - (b) the chief executive officer of a Member; or
 - (c) a person nominated by the chairman or the chief executive officer of a Member and currently employed by the Member or Government to oversee racing activities in the relevant State or Territory”.
 - (d) the Chief Commissioner, Deputy Chief Commissioner or Commissioner of a Member
 - 13.1.3 The Board may appoint a Director to fill a vacancy arising under clause 13.2, whom must meet the criteria in clause 13.1.2.

13.2 Vacation of Office

A Director ceases to be a Director if:-

- 13.2.1 the Corporations Act so provides;
- 13.2.2 the Director resigns by notice to the Company;
- 13.2.3 the Director ceases to be the chairman or chief executive officer of a Member;
- 13.2.4 the Company in general meeting removes the Director; or
- 13.2.5 the Director becomes mentally incapable and the Director's estate or property has had a personal representative or trustee appointed to administer it.
- 13.2.6 the chairman or chief executive officer who has nominated the Director ceases to be the chairman or chief executive officer of a member.

13.3 Alternate Directors

- 13.3.1 A Director may appoint an alternate for a specified period.
 - 13.3.2 The appointor may terminate the alternate's appointment at any time.
 - 13.3.3 An appointment or termination is effective only if:-
 - (a) it is in writing;
 - (b) the appointor signs it;
 - (c) the Company is given notice of it.
 - 13.3.4 The alternate need not be a member or Director of the Company.
 - 13.3.5 The alternate is entitled to notice of Board meetings.
 - 13.3.6 If the appointor is not present, the alternate may:-
 - (a) attend the Board meeting, count in the quorum, speak and vote in the place of the appointor;
 - (b) exercise any other powers (except the power to appoint an alternate) that the appointor may exercise.
 - 13.3.7 A person may act as an alternate for more than one Director.
 - 13.3.8 If the appointor ceases to be a Director, the alternate cannot exercise the appointor's powers.
 - 13.3.9 Where:-
 - (a) an appointor ceases to be a Director; and

(b) that appointor's alternate purports to do an act of a Director; that act is valid in relation to a person dealing with the Company in good faith and for value and without actually knowing that the appointor has ceased to be a Director, as if the appointor had not ceased to be a Director.

13.3.10 The Company may pay an alternate any remuneration the Board decides.

13.3.11 While acting as a Director, an alternate is an officer of the Company and not the agent of the appointor.

13.4 Secretary

13.4.1 The company secretary is appointed by the Board for such term and upon such conditions as the Board thinks fit and any secretary so appointed may be removed by the Board.

13.4.2 Unless the Board decides otherwise, the company secretary is the chief executive officer of the Company.

13.5 Powers and Duties

13.5.1 The affairs of the Company shall be managed and controlled by the Board which in addition to any powers and authorities conferred by these rules may exercise all such powers and do all such things as are within the objects of the Company and are not required by the Act or by these rules to be done by the Company in a General Meeting.

13.5.2 The Board has the management and control of the funds and other property of the Company.

13.5.3 The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its property or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company.

13.5.4 All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed in accordance with Board policy.

13.5.5 The Board shall have authority to interpret the meaning of these rules and any other matter relating to the affairs of the Company on which these rules are silent.

13.5.6 The Board shall appoint a Public Officer.

13.5.7 The Board may delegate any of its powers (not being duties imposed on the Board by the Act or the general law) to one or more committees consisting of:-

(a) the Chairman or Chief Executive Officer; and

(b) one Board Member; and

- (c) such other Board Member, Board Members or independent third party as it thinks fit;

and any committee so formed shall conform to any rule that may be imposed on it by the Board subject to having power to co-opt any Member or Members of the Company.

13.5.8 The Board may appoint one or more advisory committees consisting of such persons as the Board thinks fit. Such advisory committees shall act in an advisory capacity only. They shall confirm to any rule that may be imposed on it by the Board subject to having power to co-opt any Member or Members of the Company.

13.5.9 Without limitation to the Boards power to appoint more than one advisory committee the Greyhound Clubs Australia may be invited to form and provide to the Company its own committee to act in an advisory capacity.

13.6 Calling a meeting of the Board

13.6.1 Any Board Member may call a Board meeting. On the request of any Board Member, the Secretary must call a Board meeting.

13.6.2 Notice of a Board meeting must be given to each Board Member.

13.6.3 The notice must:

- (a) specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (b) state the business to be transacted; and
- (c) be given at least 7 days before the meeting, unless all Board Members otherwise agree.

13.7 Non-receipt of notice of a meeting, or failure to give notice of a meeting to a Board Member, does not invalidate anything done at the meeting if:

13.7.1 the Board Member gives notice to the Company that he or she waives the notice or agrees to the thing done at the meeting; or

13.7.2 the Board Member attends the meeting.

13.8 Notice may be given to a Board Member:

13.8.1 personally;

13.8.2 by ordinary pre-paid post to the address in the register of Members or the last known address of the Board Member. Notice by post is deemed to be received as the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of the post;

13.8.3 by facsimile to the facsimile number in the register of Members or the last known facsimile number of the Board Member. Notice by facsimile is deemed to be received when the sending machine confirms the notice has been sent;

13.8.4 by e-mail to the e-mail address in the register of Members or the last known e-mail address of the Board Member, if the Board Member has provided that e-mail address to the Company for the purpose of receiving notices. Notice by e-mail is deemed to be received on the day after dispatch.

13.9 Proceedings of a Board

13.9.1 The Board shall use its best endeavours to meet together for the dispatch of business at least four times per year.

13.9.2 The Board shall hold its meeting at such place as is determined by the Board from time to time.

13.9.3 The Board may hold its meeting at more than one place, provided that the technology used enables each Board member present at all places the meeting is held to clearly and simultaneously communicate with every other such Board member at all times from the commencement of the meeting to its conclusion.

13.9.4 The Chairman must be the chairperson at all meetings of the Board and if the Chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Board Members must elect from the remaining Board Members a Board Member to act as chairperson of the meeting.

13.9.5 No business must be conducted at a meeting of the Board unless there is a quorum present at all times during the meeting. If there are not enough Board Members in office to form a quorum, the Board may act only:

- (a) to increase the number of Board Members to a quorum;
- (b) to call a General Meeting; or
- (c) in an emergency.

13.9.6 Questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided in accordance with clause 13.10.

13.9.7 A quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be at least half of the Members of the Company or such greater number as may be fixed by the Board.

13.9.8 All acts done by any meeting of the Board shall notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Board Member or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Board Member.

13.9.9 A resolution in writing signed by all the Board Members for the time being shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more Board Member.
